Technology Works! is a best practice which could be duplicated in many areas. The key to success is collaboration between agencies and government entities for the betterment of the community in which they live. Mountain Lakes Medical Center obtained a BTOP grant and worked with the Rabun County Development Authority, North Georgia Technical College and the Georgia Department of Labor to create a facility that encourages education and employment opportunities and makes those resources easily available to this North Georgia mountain community. By housing these entities in one location our citizens are able to take advantage of all that is offered. Technology Works!@ Rabun Employment Center-Public Computer Center is staffed for 50 hours per week allowing clients to receive the help they may need while using the computer lab for checking e-mail, researching employment opportunities, and general computer use. In addition, our second location, Technology Works! @ The Amara Center offers an additional 42 hours per week for individuals to use the computers and wireless Internet. Free lectures regarding health and wellness issues are offered on a bi-weekly basis in the Amara Center auditorium which seats 140 individuals.

Outreach has been a big priority for Technology Works! and we have an ongoing campaign to reach the Hispanic community, students and staff and families of the Rabun County School System, the faith based and civic organizations, the medical community, as well as, the community at large. Updates on available hours of operation, services offered and upcoming classes are posted on a local e-mail list called Rabun Town Crier, in the community news section of our local paper, announced on our local radio stations, the Amara Center monthly e-newsletter, the Amara Center website, www.theamaracenter.com and on our Rabun Technology Works Facebook page.
